FUNDING

“The arts are not practiced in isolation. The Illinois Arts Council Agency promotes unity among diverse communities. Differences shared create unique mosaics; they enrich the lives of Illinoisans.”

—Illinois Arts Council Agency

ILLINOIS ARTS FACTS

IN THE LAND OF LINCOLN, THE ARTS ADDRESS CHALLENGES AND BRING COMMUNITIES TOGETHER

Project FIRE (Fearless Initiative for Recovery and Empowerment) is an artist development employment program in Chicago that offers healing through glassblowing—combining glass arts education, mentoring, and trauma psychoeducation to support trauma recovery and to create jobs for youth affected by violence.

THE ILLINOIS ARTS COUNCIL AGENCY

(IACA)—was created as a state agency by the Illinois General Assembly in 1965 through legislation sponsored by Senators Paul Simon, Thomas McGlooin, and Alan Dixon. The agency is governed by up to twenty-one private citizens chosen for their demonstrated commitment to the arts and appointed by the Governor. IACA’s mission is to build a strong, creative, and connected Illinois through the arts.

More than 100 local arts agencies, municipal arts councils, and area cultural commissions belong to the LOCAL ARTS NETWORK (LAN), a partnership program between IACA and Arts Alliance Illinois.

THE ARTS ARE EVERYWHERE!

- Start near the southern tip of Illinois in Carbondale, where Carbondale Community Arts transformed the city’s former library into a state-of-the-art facility for exhibitions and performances, Artspace 304.
- Head north toward Mt. Vernon where the Goldman-Kuenz Sculpture Park surrounds the Mitchell Museum and the Shrode Art Center for education at the Cedarhurst Center for the Arts.
- Next, go west to Lebanon and the oldest college in Illinois, McKendree University, where the Hettenhausen Center for the Arts presents notable speakers, performing-arts ensembles, great films, and National Geographic Live! events for audiences of all ages.
- Be sure to hit Quincy for picture-perfect architectural landmarks on the Mississippi River—and a thriving cultural scene supported by America’s first arts council, Arts Quincy.
- In midstate Peoria, check out the sculpture walk and Peoria Riverfront Museum, then take a printmaking class at Prairie Center of the Arts.
- Galena visitors can cruise some or all 100-plus miles of the Scenic Art Loop, which includes galleries and studios, vineyards and breweries, and specialty stores and boutiques.
- Stop by Freeport’s new Civic Arts Plaza and Rockford’s Riverfront Museum Park on your way east to the Art Institute of Chicago, winner of multiple “Best Museum in the World” awards, and home to the School of the Art Institute of Chicago—six of whose graduate programs are at the top of U.S. News and World Report’s rankings.
