

Arts Action Fund Recommended Policy Resolutions for National Party Platform: National Issues

Be it resolved that: The United States government annually funds the National Endowment of the Arts at a minimum rate of $1 per capita (an increase from 45 cents per capita).

Be it resolved that: The White House establishes a cabinet level position for the arts and culture to advise the President of the United States on such matters as it impacts the economy, diplomacy, education, and the overall well-being of its citizens and the nation at large.

Be it resolved that: The United States government retains the arts in the definition of core academic subjects and strengthens equitable access for all children to receive robust arts learning in K-12 education.

Be it resolved that: The United States government fully preserves tax deduction incentives for giving to nonprofit arts and culture charities.